ESG Operations, Inc. is proud to announce Lockheed Martin Laboratory Director Jeff Fulton has been awarded the Ira C. Kelley Analyst of the Year Award by the Georgia Association of Water Professionals (GAWP).

The award is presented annually to a member of GAWP who has demonstrated outstanding accomplishments in operating an environmental laboratory facility, performed outstanding service in instruction and training other laboratory analysts, contributed to advancement of the laboratory field, and/or developed analytical techniques, procedures or instrumentation.

“ESG is honored to partner with Lockheed Martin Aeronautics and we congratulate Jeff on this coveted award and recognition. ESG’s award-winning laboratory services are made possible by team members such as Jeff who continually provide critical data and analyses that protect both the environment and public health,” stated John Eddlemon, P.E., ESG Senior Vice President.

Also a recent recipient of the Water Environment Federation Analyst Excellence Award, Jeff was honored to receive the acknowledgement: “I would like to thank my committed team for their support towards this aspiration; an individual award accomplished through a team effort.”

Jeff will be presented with the award on November 17 at the 2015 GAWP Fall Conference in Athens, Georgia.
